Summer is winding down and as we move into fall mode, we are preparing for the Lowville Cream Cheese Festival. LNNY has raffle baskets and the ticket sales will support LNNY programs in Jefferson and Lewis Counties. We will have the table at the usual location, on North State St., across from the fire station.

We need volunteers to help sell raffle tickets at the LNNY table and someone to dress as Cat in the Hat. The shifts on Saturday Sept. 17 are two hours long. The event begins at 11 a.m. and ends at 6 p.m. If you would like to help, please call the office at 315-782-4270 or email Deborah at program.manager.literacyyny@gmail.com.

The raffle baskets are the same as in previous years – Lottery Tree, Toy Basket, Children’s Book Basket, Doggy Basket, and the Lowville Basket. If you have something to donate to the Lowville Basket, let us know.

Former board member and tutor, Sally Brennan, has retired. In past years, Sally has done all the collecting for the Lowville Mega Basket. We are keeping the tradition of having a Lowville Basket and new board member, Samuel Gingerich of Lowville, has risen to the task of asking for basket donations in the Lowville area. Thank you, Sam! Here are some of the baskets for the festival.

Visit Literacy of NNY at the Lowville Cream Cheese Festival on Saturday, September 17!

Proceeds from basket sales will go towards LNNY's adult literacy programs in Jefferson & Lewis Counties.

Fort Drum News

Program Assistant, Cortney Carter, took both classes on a field trip to the bowling alley on Fort Drum on August 11. She had a good response from students who attended – it seems that the students enjoyed this American pastime.
